YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION

This notice applies to the information and records we have about your health, health status, and the health care and services you receive at this office. We are required by law to give you this notice. It will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose health information about you and describes your rights and our obligations regarding the use and disclosure of that information.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

For Treatment

We may use health information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We may disclose health information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, office staff or other personnel who are involved in taking care of you and your health.

For example, your doctor may be treating you for a heart condition and may need to know if you have other health problems that could complicate your treatment. The doctor may use your medical history to decide what treatment is best for you. The doctor may also tell another doctor about your condition so that doctor can help determine the most appropriate care for you.

Different personnel in our office may share information about you and disclose information to people who do not work in our office in order to coordinate your care, such as phoning in prescriptions to your pharmacy, scheduling lab work and ordering x-rays. Family members and other health care providers may be part of your medical care outside this office and may require information about you that we have.

For Payment

We may use and disclose health information about you so that the treatment and services you receive at this office may be billed to and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company or a third party. For example, we may need to give your health plan information about a service you received here so your health plan will pay us or reimburse you for the service. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment you are going to receive to obtain prior approval, or to determine whether your plan will cover the treatment.

For Health Care Operations

We may use and disclose health information about you in order to run the office and make sure that you and our other patients receive quality care. For example, we may use your health information to evaluate the performance of our staff in caring for you. We may also use health information about all or many of our patients to help us decide what additional services we should offer, how we can become more efficient, or whether certain new treatments are effective.

Appointment Reminders

We may contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for treatment or medical care at the office.

Treatment Alternatives

We may tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

Health-Related Products and Services

Please notify us if you do not wish to be contacted for appointment reminders, or if you do not wish to receive communications about treatment alternatives or health-related products and services. If you advise us in writing (at the address listed at the top of this Notice) that you do not wish to receive such communications, we will not use or disclose your information for these purposes.

Facts You Should Know About Your Dental Insurance

Dental insurance has played a role in helping people obtain better Dental Care. Since we strongly feel that our patients deserve the best possible treatment we can provide, and in an effort to maintain the highest quality of care, we would like to share the following facts regarding dental insurance in general.

1. Dental Insurance companies do not intend for their plans to cover all expenses occurred during a Dental appointment. The plans serve as an aid toward acquiring better care.
2. Dental plans claiming coverage of '80% or 100%' tend to mislead patients with regards to what the actual amount of coverage will be during your dental visit. The dental plan coverage percentage is NOT based on the fee schedule for any individual office but rather a fee schedule that generally lags behind what the average industry wide fee would be. Each individual dentist sets their own fees and is not governed by any general fee guide. Your best option is to understand your own benefit package and contact the provider to find out your individual situation.
3. Many dental services are covered a specific maximum number of times in a calendar year. It is your responsibility to be informed of your plans limits
4. Some insurance companies tell their clients that the 'Dental fees being charged are above the usual and customary' when in fact the benefit being paid is too low and not keeping pace with the industry costs. You do not have an average mouth and we do not perform average Dentistry, therefore we do not charge average fees. Your treatment plan will be based on your Dental Health needs, not on the amount of benefit you are eligible to receive.

Please do not hesitate to ask any question about our office policies. We want you to be comfortable in dealing with these matters and we urge you to consult us if you have any questions regarding our service and/or fees. We will fill out and file your insurance as a courtesy to you at no charge. We will do all we can to assure you of maximum benefits, but bear in mind that the insurance company is responsible to you and you are responsible to us for your account. We cannot render services on the assumption the the charges will be paid by the insurance company.

If you have any questions regarding your insurance, we ask that you contact your employer or insurance carrier regarding the specifics and details of the plan it is conducting on your behalf.
